The Third Sunday of Easter

Opening | Christ is Risen

Christ is risen! Shout hosanna!
Celebrate this day of days.
Christ is risen! Hush in wonder;
all creation is amazed.
In the desert all surrounding,
see, a spreading tree has grown.
Healing leaves of grace abounding bring a taste of love unknown.

Christ is risen! Raise your spirits from the caverns of despair.
Walk with gladness in the morning,
see what love can do and dare.
Drink the wine of resurrection,
Not a servant, but a friend.
Jesus is our strong companion;
joy and peace shall never end.

Christ is risen! Earth and heaven never more shall be the same.
Break the bread of new creation
where the world is still in pain.
Tell its grim, demonic chorus:
"Christ is risen! Get you gone!"
God the First and Last is with us.
Sing hosanna everyone.

Collect of the Day

God of the new fire
and feasting at daybreak:
come to us in the dullness of routine
and the pain of betrayal;
call to us in the way of the cross
and the joy of resurrection;
through Jesus Christ, the Son of God. Amen.

First Reading | Acts 9:1--20

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles ...

Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He asked, "Who are you, Lord?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do."

The men who were travelling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one. Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank. Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." He answered, "Here I am, Lord." The Lord said to him, "Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul. At this moment he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight." But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem; and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name." But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is an instrument whom I have chosen to bring my name before Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel; I myself will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name." So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength. For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus, and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, "He is the Son of God."

Thanks be to God

Psalms 30

I will exalt you, O Lord, because you have lifted me up and have not let my enemies triumph over me.
O Lord my God, I cried out to you,
and you restored me to health.

You brought me up, O Lord, from the dead; you restored my life as I was going down to the grave.
Sing to the Lord, you servants of God;
give thanks for the remembrance
of the holiness of God.

For the wrath of God endures but the twinkling of an eye, the divine favour for a lifetime.
Weeping may spend the night,
but joy comes in the morning.

While I felt secure, I said,
"I shall never be disturbed."
Lord, with your favour, you made me as strong as the mountains."
Then you hid your face, and I was filled with fear.

I cried to you, O Lord; I pleaded with you, saying,
"What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the pit? Will the dust praise you or declare your faithfulness?"

Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me;
O Lord, be my helper."

You have turned my wailing into dancing;
you have put off my sack-cloth and clothed me with joy.

Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing;
O Lord my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."

The Gospel of Christ

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

Second Hymn | Alleluia Alleluia Give Thanks

*Alleluia, Alleluia,
Give thanks to the risen Lord;
Alleluia, Alleluia,
Give praise to Christ's name.*

Jesus is Lord of all the earth,
He is the king of creation.

*Alleluia, Alleluia,
Give thanks to the risen Lord;
Alleluia, Alleluia,
Give praise to Christ's name.*

Spread the good news o'er all the earth:
Jesus has died and is risen.

*Alleluia, Alleluia,
give thanks to the risen Lord;
Alleluia, Alleluia,
give praise to Christ's name.*

We have been crucified with Christ:
Now we shall live forever

*Alleluia, Alleluia,
Give thanks to the risen Lord;
Alleluia, Alleluia,
Give praise to Christ's name.*

Come let us praise the living God.
Joyfully sing to our Saviour.

*Alleluia, Alleluia,
Give thanks to the risen Lord;
Alleluia, Alleluia,
Give praise to Christ's name.*

Closing | Jesus is Risen Alleluia

Jesus is risen, alleluia!
Worship and praise him, alleluia!
Now our redeemer bursts from the grave;
Lost to the tomb, Christ rises to save.

*Come, let us worship him,
endlessly sing;
Christ is alive and death loses its sting.
Sins are forgiven, alleluia!
Jesus is risen, alleluia!*

Go and tell others, Christ is alive.'
Love is eternal, faith and hope thrive.
What God intended, Jesus fulfilled;
what God conceives can never be killed.

*Come, let us worship him,
endlessly sing;
Christ is alive and death loses its sting.
Sins are forgiven, alleluia!
Jesus is risen, alleluia!*

Christ is arisen! Now all can see how humankind is meant to be free.
though powers of darkness threaten their worst,
Through every barrier Jesus has burst.

*Come, let us worship him,
endlessly sing;
Christ is alive and death loses its sting.
Sins are forgiven, alleluia!
Jesus is risen, alleluia!*

Let heaven echo, let the earth sing:
Jesus is savior of everything.
All those who trust him, Christ will receive;
therefore rejoice, obey and believe!

*Come, let us worship him,
endlessly sing;
Christ is alive and death loses its sting.
Sins are forgiven, alleluia!
Jesus is risen, alleluia!*
